*"When we've killed all the animals
Men will be next."*

Oil has run out and the world fights for food. To save his people, Agamemnon sacrifices his daughter to his barbaric new allies. With the fury of a mother betrayed, Clytemnestra waits for his return. What will she do for justice?

Adultery, power and revenge drive this new telling of an epic Greek legend.

A major new production from Sherman Cymru, Clytemnestra combines the dramatic story-telling of the former National Poet of Wales, Gwyneth Lewis, with the bold direction of Amy Hodge (Measure for Measure).

Godineb, pwer a dialedd sy'n gyrru'r addasiad newydd hwn, gan gyn Cenedlaethol Cymru, o'r chwedl Roegaidd.
